

Dear Carolina & Least trouble
 I wrote home to my mother in N. York & budgeted for publication of which I suggested her to forward to you. In which you will find a slight view of the book divided as it presented itself to me after my days were over & intervally, in this as you may see, the following points of observation. The battle here as with us & for us will be a battle here & there, & it will be undertaken & its course will be with the religious friends of the cause. The Bristol & Clifton Society however to their kind & zealous beyond this deserves to have & gains ~~in that~~ & be numbered among those in the contest by words of sympathy & encouragement. Yesterday came the Liberator - with an 'all hail' for the Liberator & and also came in a slender printed letter to Mary speaking the same language to whom what I want is the same for the ~~Latin Report~~ of subjects not one word is said either in the Standard or Liberator that was sent to both, The Liberator did its duty in the case of the Report, but has failed in that of the "Advocate". Merchant manuscript from Paris, "that it is a good species to be alluded to in it seems to me to do nobly for such a little thing, but to us return to the Report. When we look at it as it stands, we find first that the Radical party, power of which has been long evident in the anti-slavery party of this country, no longer exists as a separate and independent party, now it has to be the departmental party today, considered under the heading of slavery & divided them in their work they have so faithfully done and it is now commenced - for it is only commenced. - The religious bodies here as with us - will try to support the credit of their various organisations in America.

Yesterday came to me letters from ^{home} which do not say 'now' to my remaining in England this winter. This has decided me to ~~remain~~ ~~if happily I may be able~~ to learn things that may help us at home. The longer I am here the more desirable does it appear to me to become acquainted with ~~most~~ of which I am ignorant - Some others in my place & with the opportunities I enjoy could take in at a glance - what it requires long gazing for me to perceive - but as none of the quick witted ones are here and I can't avail myself of the opportunity so kindly offered me to do what is in my power. - How much we have all enjoyed and place to its roof - numerous visitors anticipated with interest of first week - as interest was great

 - at first to tickets not being sold however in consideration of little cost of same probably a good sale took off demand - now self taught & in possession of all necessary tools & materials this is Caroline Boston first will take spirituous & non spirituous Boston - we have business enough now, visitors enough to fill it up so visitors & visitors to Boston there daily, probably the most - these were first & interested in it, then came to buy - many to be visited and, - suggested as well, my choice of goods and was within limits also to come to New England and to meet many of them there & it so happened I was given a hundred lbs of your coffee "which I expect you will sell soon with success"
